Javelins Which Jerome Hurled To-day Toward Hearst and Boss Murphy

What a politician doesn't know about an election is a whole lot.

The Democratic party has had to swallow some bitter draughts, but will never stand the medicine of Hearst's nomination.

Hearst cannot claim to be the prophet who brought the Ten Commandments from Mount Sinai. He is like Moses, who broke all of them at once. He has broken them habitually.

Hearst is a man of no importance. He is like Murphy. Murphy's brains are in Europe. How can you expect him to talk until Cram gets back?

Will Sheriff Hayes get up and tell his people that the reasons for which he advised them to vote against Hearst last year were false?
